

Leading the way

in management research

Does your library need . . .

- Continuous access to the latest and most relevant content published by Emerald?
- To save time spent on administration and automatically have access to the very latest in management research?
- Long-term budget control through a multi-year pricing agreement?

If you have answered “yes” to any of these questions, your library should subscribe to Emerald Management Plus.

“Emerald has brilliantly combined its website and online database into a single platform ... Search results can be limited by clicking on articles, abstracts & reviews, Emerald site, or other content tabs. Current journal issues are easily located from the journal list and are displayed with cover images, and links to RSS, latest issue, editorial team, and submission guidelines”

Library Journal, January 2009

Who is Emerald?

Over the past 44 years Emerald Group Publishing Limited has established its reputation as the leading publisher of management research. Emerald's publishing philosophy is "research you can use", which ensures that the information within each journal is both rigorous and relevant, connecting the academic world with management practice.

We are proud to say that all of the world's top 100 business schools (listed by the Financial Times Global MBA Rankings 2010 – FT 100) have Emerald authors or Editorial Board members. In 2009, Emerald articles were downloaded nearly 22 million times and read in research study. This equates to almost 60,000 a day, every day of the year.

Emerald is an international publisher, with authors, editors, advisers and reviewers and customers drawn from around the world. Authors from over 145 different countries have published with Emerald. This international author base provides a truly global perspective.

Our flagship titles include Management Decision, European Journal of Marketing, Leadership & Organization Development Journal, Journal of Consumer Marketing and Library Management. Articles from these titles are downloaded on average 209,000 times each month.

Emerald Management Plus

Emerald Management Plus is Emerald's premium and most comprehensive journal collection and is a central access point for rigorous and relevant peer-reviewed research in the field of business and management.

This collection incorporates all the benefits of an Emerald subscription, whilst providing instant access to new and acquired titles as soon as they are published online – guaranteeing availability of the very latest research.

A subscription currently provides access to over 225 journals from 24 subject areas, ensuring that users have an extensive source of business and management research. And, with Emerald's commitment to launching and acquiring high quality publications, the journal count will continually grow. Emerald Management Plus also reduces administration time and provides long-term budget control, as there is no longer the need to renegotiate mid-agreements in order to gain access to the latest titles.

Emerald Management Plus has been designed to provide users with a thorough understanding of business and management, making it a core resource that is crucial to academic, professional and business research.

Why should you subscribe to Emerald Management Plus?

Reduced administration – Emerald Management Plus subscribers have no need to renegotiate mid-agreement in order to gain access to Emerald's latest journals.

Long-term budget control – pay a guaranteed price for the term of your agreement.

Comprehensive collection – users will always be able to access the latest research from Emerald.

Industry leader – be among the first to access articles from Emerald's most recent and relevant new launches and acquisitions.

The eJournals with Emerald Management Plus are:

Comprehensive – Emerald Management Plus covers 24 subject areas within business and management, providing users with a single point of access for management research.

International – authors from over 145 different countries have published with Emerald. This international author base ensures that users gain a global perspective.

High quality – all Emerald's scholarly journals are peer reviewed, so users can guarantee that they are accessing verified, quality research.

Tailored – Emerald Management Plus offers additional support resources for librarians, researchers, authors and students in order to provide greater depth of information tailored specifically to the needs of key stakeholder groups within the university.

Emerald offers:

No embargoes – users always have access to the latest research published by Emerald.

Flexible purchasing options – Emerald offers multi-year agreement options on a range of packages to suit the budget of every university library.

Simple agreements – institution-wide agreements offer unrestricted, concurrent, multi-user access.

Perpetual access – to all research published during the year of your subscription and rented access to full text dating back to 1994.

Integrated and intuitive search and browse functionality – with HTML or PDF formats available.

Additional resources – in addition, subscribers can access a range of useful support resources – all designed to make research easier!

Emerald standards

Emerald meets a range of industry, technical and global standards through a proactive process of customer and contributor feedback. We also regularly collaborate with publishing industry bodies.

Technical standards:

- Usage statistics are COUNTER3 compliant to ensure accurate download reporting services and SUSHI (Standardised Usage Statistics Harvesting Initiative) compliant in order to replace the time-consuming, user-mediated collection of usage data reports.
- OpenURL industry standards are adopted.
- Emerald uses CrossRef and DOIs to provide reference linking services
- Authenticated subscription access is available through Shibboleth and Athens
- Collections are compatible with the following reference management software: EndNote, Reference Manager, RefWorks and ProCite
- Emerald works to ensure that its products are seamlessly integrated with a range of library management systems including:
 - Serial Solutions – Summon and Aqua Browser
 - Ex Libris – Primo, Metalib and SFX

New for 2011

Our dedicated new launch and acquisition team has carefully selected 12 quality journals to add to our portfolio in 2011. Subscribers to Emerald Management Plus will benefit from automatic access to these titles and any further journal additions to the portfolio.

Grey Systems: Theory and Application

Grey Systems: Theory and Application seeks to foster professional exchanges between scientists and practitioners who are interested in the foundations and applications of grey systems. Articles contain theory and applications of grey systems as well as various contributions of hybrid approaches combining grey systems with other theories for tackling uncertain information more effectively and efficiently.

Arts Marketing: An International Journal

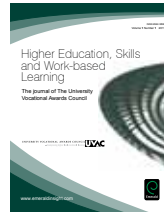

Arts Marketing: An International Journal is dedicated to publishing high quality contemporary research into arts marketing and strongly encourages creativity in the development of marketing theory and practice. The journal adopts a broad view of the arts, including all sectors of the creative industries.

Built Environment Project and Asset Management

Built Environment Project and Asset Management deliberates on, disseminates and validates cutting edge Research and Development in Construction Project Management and Infrastructure Asset Management. It connects both established and upcoming researchers with progressive practitioners in these fields and proactively links research and practitioner communities worldwide.

Higher Education, Skills and Work-based Learning

Higher Education, Skills and Work-based Learning is the official journal of the University Vocational Awards Council (UVAC) to be launched in 2011. Focusing specifically on the interface between higher education and the workplace, it will publish academic and scholarly practitioner-focused papers providing broad international coverage of issues, developments and innovation in higher level skills, higher level work-based learning and higher education.

Journal of Accounting in Emerging Economies

Launching in 2011, the Journal of Accounting in Emerging Economies (JAEE) will be a sister publication to the Research in Accounting in Emerging Economies (RAEE) book series. The general papers published in JAEE will complement the more thematically-based paper collections in the annual book series RAEE. Together, JAEE and RAEE are intended to provide an authoritative overview of accounting research and progress in emerging economies.

Journal of Agribusiness in Developing and Emerging Economies

The Journal of Agribusiness in Developing and Emerging Economies (JADEE) show-cases research about the farm-to-fork food value chain and its implications for economic and societal development in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe.

“Emerald is one of the most innovative and proactive academic publishers.”

Professor Craig Standing, School of Management, Edith Cowan University, Australia

Journal of Cultural Heritage Management and Sustainable Development

The Journal of Cultural Heritage Management and Sustainable Development (JCHMSD) stimulates and encourages research devoted to the sustainable development of cultural heritage and to the positive contribution of cultural heritage management towards a sustainable environment. It seeks to develop the skills and knowledge of the international community working in the field of cultural heritage and sustainable development.

Journal of Family Business Management

The Journal of Family Business Management (JFBM) provides broad and unrivalled coverage of all aspects of contemporary family business strategy and management. With a unique focus on behavioural research, it aims to communicate the latest developments and thinking on the management of family business operations worldwide.

Journal of Humanitarian Logistics and Supply Chain Management

The Journal of Humanitarian Logistics and Supply Chain Management promotes the exchange of knowledge, experience and new ideas between researchers and practitioners and encourages a multi-disciplinary and cross-functional approach to the resolution of problems and exploitation of opportunities within humanitarian supply chains.

Journal of Social Marketing

The Journal of Social Marketing (JSOCM) publishes double blind peer reviewed research that show-cases the adaptation and adoption of commercial marketing activities, institutions and processes as a means to induce behavioural change in a targeted audience on a temporary or permanent basis to achieve a social goal.

Sport, Business and Management

Sport, Business and Management: An International Journal (SBM) serves to promote the development of a coherent, high quality body of work in sport, business and management, an area that has until now been largely overlooked by academia despite being one of the few industries to warrant its own daily section in most newspapers.

China Finance Review International

China Finance Review International is an empirical and innovative publication that aims to publish a series of ground-breaking studies and develop world-class masters in the field of economics.

Emerald's launch and acquisition policy

Since 2005 Emerald has added 121 journals to its collection and, with long-term commitment to launching and acquiring high quality business and management publications, this growth is set to continue. We have committed to add a further ten titles to our portfolio in 2012. Our new launch programme demonstrates a commitment to innovation and quality in publishing by responding to market needs for journals in new, evolving areas.

Emerald's new launch and acquisition programme

Emerald actively expands its portfolio through launch and acquisition. Our new journal launch and acquisition programme demonstrates our commitment to:

- Innovation and quality in publishing
- Development of subject area strength and coverage
- Responding to market needs for journals in new and evolving areas
- Internationality and inclusivity
- A diverse range of titles across a broad range of subject disciplines
- Value for money – more journals and more content in specific and relevant areas

Every proposal for a new journal or acquisition is evaluated thoroughly to ensure that it provides our users with something new. A highly stringent review process, coupled with an intensive market research phase, helps us to identify whether a new title is unique, sustainable, and contributes something different, new and exciting to the body of knowledge. We work closely with new and acquired editorial teams, either through the pre-launch year, or through the acquisition period, to ensure that every title has a solid foundation from which to grow.

Featured journals from our publishing programme

Asia-Pacific Journal of Business Administration

A much-needed, wide-ranging title on all aspects of business administration in the Asia-Pacific region.

"In a time of increasing challenges and turmoil in the Asia Pacific, but one also of great opportunity, the Asia-Pacific Journal of Business Administration is a very welcome addition to the journals in the business and management field."

Professor Elizabeth More, Macquarie University, Australia

China Agricultural Economic Review

Quickly gaining recognition as a leader in the field of Chinese Agricultural Economics.

"Glad to see the publication of more papers in CAER produced by researchers from mainland China, who in my opinion are in an excellent position to provide great insights into many issues concerning China's agricultural economics."

Professor Zhangyue Zhou, James Cook University, Australia

International Journal of Gender and Entrepreneurship

The only journal dedicated to the advancement of the field of gender and entrepreneurship.

"I was particularly pleased to see the range of international authors involved in the first issue and the quality of the researchers who have accepted a role on the journal's editorial board."

I believe a journal dedicated to female entrepreneurship has been long overdue and it is good to know there is now a high quality publication that can serve as a focal point for international researchers interested in this topic area"

Dr John Watson, University of Western Australia, Australia

Journal of Chinese Entrepreneurship

The first scholarly journal specialising in entrepreneurship in China.

"China is a key engine of economic growth for the twenty-first century. JCE is a must read if you want to know how this engine is evolving. It was launched at just the right time to help the world understand important issues on Chinese entrepreneurship through insightful cutting-edge research."

Professor Zhou Nan, City University of Hong Kong and Wuhan University, PR China

Journal of Knowledge-based Innovation in China

The first journal to focus solely on knowledge-based innovation and triple helix relations in China.

"JKIC is unique amongst its related journals in that it publishes rigorously peer-reviewed scholarly work of a high quality yet with a short turnaround time."

Dr Naubahar Sharif, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, PR China
